WANT TO CLOSE LOCAL RED CROSS CAMPAIGN THIS WEEK

Appeal for Funds to Sustain Work of Charleroi Chapter Now Going On

ASK A MONTHLY GUARANTEE

The local business and professional men of Charleroi who have interested themselves in placing the Charleroi Chapter of the American Red Cross on a solid financial basis, will endeavor to close up their campaign this week. Some of these gentlemen were out on Tuesday, while every day until Saturday others will be calling upon citizens with a view of having them guarantee to give so much per month to the financial needs of the Chapter. Once the local organization is financed in this manner, it can go along with its work for the American army with renewed zest, and with a knowledge that its supplies will be forthcoming and its bills paid promptly on time.

Demand on the Red Cross will increase from now on, and with this fact for an incentive the men who have interested themselves in the financial end of the work are exerting every effort to complete the work this week.

Idah McGlone Gibson, the well known woman writer, in a visit to the headquarters of Gen. Pershing, asked him how much of a factor the Red Cross is in the work of winning the war.

He replied: "You have been over here a good deal, Mrs. Gibson, what do you think about it?"

"After a thorough investigation of all Red Cross activities I am going back home with a message that America cannot do too much for the extension and perfection of her Red Cross service."

The General stiffened in his chair and said:

"And well you may, Mrs. Gibson, well you may, for I want to say to you that no other organization since the world began has ever done such great constructive work, with the efficiency, despatch, understanding, often under adverse circumstances, that has been done in France by the American Red Cross in the last six months."

The American Red Cross was one of the first American forces in France—it will be the last to leave. It is helping the French people to fight the great battles of the war, and is aiding and sustaining their men who are sent to hospitals.

It is this work the business and professional men of Charleroi are endeavoring to assist by placing the local Chapter on a sustaining basis, by providing it with a perpetual fund, that its activities may be continued without interruption.

When the solicitor shall call upon you be ready to receive him and contribute generously to this worthy cause.

CALL TO REV. KELLER APPROVED BY PRESBYTERY

At the meeting of the Pittsburgh Presbyterian in Pittsburgh on Tuesday the call by the First Presbyterian church to Rev. C. A. Keller, of Charleroi to Rev. C. A. Keller, recently called to this pastorate, as approved. A committee from the session is now arranging for the installation service, which will likely be held next week.

MIKESSELL WINS OVER CONTROLLER

In the suit of O. Evans Mikesell, scaler of weights and measures of the county against the county, a claim for his wages for the month of January, $150, which the controller, T. J. Underwood, refused to approve for payment, the court was banded down a decree directing judgment to be entered in favor of Mr. Mikesell. The county pays the cost. The court writes no opinion but simply refers to the opinion written in the Zane vs. Washington county suit, in which the same question was involved. In that case the controller held up the pay of Miss Irene Zane a clerk in the commissioners' office.

In entering judgment the court sets forth that the commissioners admit the justness of the claim, and it is not appearing there is any fraud or collusion, judgment is entered for the full amount of the claim. At the end of the decree the court adds the pointed statement, "Let us have peace."

In the Zane opinion which the court refers to, the controller is held to have exceeded his authority.

PARTY GIVEN AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. CULP

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Culp of Belle Vernon gave a birthday party at their home Monday evening in honor of Andy Althouse. About 55 guests were present. Decorations were in the national colors and small hatches and cherries were the favors. The evening was spent in dancing, playing cards. Several vocal solos and recitations by the guests added to the evening's entertainment. Luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present from Charleroi were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cottle and daughter Doris, Miss Irene Lagler and William Althouse.

The Carnegie Towing Fleet To Be Greatly Increased

Comprehensive plans of the Carnegie Steel Company indicate that this big steel corporation will be one of the largest shippers of coal on the Monongahela river within the coming year. The steel company is preparing to deliver coal to the new by-product coke plant at Clairton, now in course of construction and which is expected to be in operation some time during the coming spring.

The transportation department of the company, of which Mr. Underwood is manager, already has the steamer Duquesne in commission, and within the next few weeks expects to have this number increased possibly to five. Two new steel hulled boats are now under construction and almost completed by the James Rees' Company of Pittsburgh; it is said the steamer Ike Barrett, of Cincinnati, a companion boat of the Duquesne, is under option, and that negotiations are under way for the purchase of a boat in St. Louis.

It is planned to have all of these boats in commission early this spring when the towing of coal from the sixth pool to Clairton will begin in earnest. All plans for the operation of these boats have been carefully prepared, and it is said that each boat will tow a fleet of four barges each way, two of 100 feet length, and two 175 feet each in length. It has been figured that this arrangement will provide the maximum amount of service, and will make locking more expeditious, a time-saving feature that is not being overlooked in these days of modern methods.

Rivermen are anxiously awaiting the appearance of the two new boats being built in Pittsburgh, in order to compare their work with the Duquesne, which has measured up to all the expectations of her new owners.

NAVIGATION IN FULL SWING IN LOWER POOLS

Navigation is in full swing on the lower pools of the Monongahela, the river being clear from Brownsville to Pittsburgh. Practically every company interested in river traffic has their boats in operation, and large quantities of coal are now being shipped daily by water. The opening of the river will have its effects on the Monongahela divisions of the Pennsylvania and Lake Erie railroads which are compelled to haul large additional amounts of coal and coke while the stream was closed.

MRS. HAZELBAKER'S FATHER DIES AT WASHINGTON

John Abrams, father of Mrs. Elga Hazelbaker of Washington, died at his home in Washington Tuesday night. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the mortuary chapel in Monongahela cemetery in charge of Rev. Hartung.

SEW PROGRESS IN BLASTING ICE

After working all day Tuesday and using about five hundred pounds of dynamite, government forces in charge of Capt. George S. Nutt, succeeded in blasting out about 80 feet of the gorge in the fifth pool, a short distance above Brownsville. It is said that in some places the gorge reaches to a depth of 20 feet without touching the river bed. Capt. Nutt said Tuesday evening that the work would continue until the gorge had been removed. The steamers Swan and Blackwater, with their crews, are engaged in this work, promises to be the biggest dynamiting job in the way of removing ice ever undertaken on the Monongahela river.

ADVISORY BOARD TO PASS ON MEN

The men of the fifth district of Washington county, who were exempted from active military service by the registration board on account of physical disability, will be taken to Pittsburgh on Friday next, where they will go before the advisory board and be examined at the Mercy hospital and will probably be put in some branch of the service. About 100 men from the district will leave Friday on the 9:30 train from Donora for Pittsburgh. A man has to be in very bad physical condition at this time to be completely exempted by the draft board.

Members of Charleroi Council No. 1240 are requested to attend regular meeting of the council to be held Wednesday February 13. Installation of officers.

WILL BUILD BARGES FOR HILLMAN COMPANY

The Hillman Transportation company has awarded a contract for 30 timber barges to the McCune boat yards at Dravosburg. These craft will be 100 feet in length, 26 feet beam and eight feet deep. They will be used in the coal trade on the Monongahela river.

ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

Robert Perry and a woman who posed as his wife, named Malverna Herman, who lived in the cement block house at Eldora, Sam Snyder, aged 24, of Pittsburgh and Harry Waller aged 24, of Monessen were given a hearing before Alderman Elwood of Monongahela, Tuesday night charged with disorderly conduct. Implicated with this group were two other women, Adaline and Genevieve LaTralle, aged 20 and 21 respectively, who appeared to be frequent visitors at the home of Perry at Eldora.

Perry, the Herman woman and Snyder and Waller were held for court in $500 bail, while the LaTralle sisters are being detained until further notice.

Perry was arrested in Charleroi Monday night by the State Police and taken to Monongahela where the hearing was held. The combination of the alleged had the appearance of a white slave outfit, and the State Police made a very rigid investigation. Whether there is any other persons implicated in the party is not stated.

MONESSEN MAN IS VICIOUSLY ASSAULTED

Monessen may have another murder as the result an assault on Andy Kach, who is now a patient in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital in a critical condition.

It appears that in a drunken turmoil Saturday last Kach was attacked by Mike Howarth, who mashed Kach's face, kicked him in the abdomen and otherwise abused him so seriously that a physician was called and the injured man sent to the local hospital.

The assailant, Howarth was placed in the Monessen lockup, to await the arrival of the state police to take charge of the case. Howarth was before Burgess Stewart of Monessen on Saturday last on a charge of disorderly conduct for cutting a clothesline and using obscene language before women. He paid $12 for that offense, but will not likely get off so easy this one.

James Evans of Fifth street was taken to the Allegheny General Hospital at Pittsburgh Wednesday, where he will undergo a course of treatment.

Now with Russia in the hands of a new form of government, which is really hard to describe, it has virtually made an end to war, and its armies are disintegrating. The allies who went into the war just as much for Russia as any other country, are left to fight the battles without the aid of this country. but the day of reckoning will come. The allied powers will eventually win the war—it will take many weary months—but we will win, and then Russia will find herself completely isolated. She will be discredited among the nations of the earth, and it will be years before she will be able to take her proper sphere—her resources and her wealth entitle her. A new government will have to be established, and one with a greater respect for honorable acts than the one now in power.

amount of power we will have to send overseas remains to be determined. Whatever may be necessary will be provided. We have set our face toward victory and we cannot turn back. The question of autocracy or democracy must be settled now and there is hope forever, and in this settlement the American people will have a large share. We know the blessings of liberty and we want the other people of the earth to share in what we have had in this respect. And the end of the war will find democracy triumphant.

Has Great Specific Gravity.

Mercury has the greatest specific gravity of all liquids but recently another has been discovered which is also so heavy that stones of all kinds—granite, limestone, quartz, etc., float in it. It is saturated aqueous solution of tung stannate. Its specific gravity is 3.3, whereas that of ordinary rock does not exceed 2.7. Only a few precious stones have a specific gravity greater than that of this liquid, for which reason it is proposed to employ it for the separation of such stones from masses of broken rock.

New Electric Furnaces.

The success of electric heat in Japan and various other work has led to considerable investigation along the line of what might be termed low temperature heating; that is, heating with temperatures up to 600 degrees Fahrenheit. The results of these investigations have brought out numerous other applications, among which are electric core baking ovens, electric bread baking ovens, ovens for making cereals, drying woolen articles and equipment for sherardizing.

A Good Wife.

Once upon a time there was a farmer whose wife daily pumped the household supply of water up to a tank on the roof, says The Little Journal. After 20 years he installed an electric motor to do this for her. Careful calculation brought out the fact that the wife had been working that pump handle 3,650 hours at a value of half a cent per hour. She had saved him $18.75 in 20 years. What was it the preacher said about her worth being above rubies?

Birds' Nest Soup.

The birds' nests from which the famous Chinese soup is made are built by a species of swallow that abounds on the coasts of Java, Ceylon and Borneo, and consists of a gelatinous substance obtained from marine plants. The nests are boiled either in chicken broth or in milk of almonds, and the result very much resembles vermicelli soup, except that it is far more costly.

The First Waving Flags.

Waving flags are said to have been first brought to Spain by the Saracens. The present Spanish colors, red and yellow, came from the old shields of Castile and Aragon.

FRANCE O. K. BUT NOT

Miss Maxell of Allenport, recently received a letter from John R. Leezer son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leezer, of Stockdale, who is now "somewhere in France." He was formerly employed as a machinist at the Charleroi Iron Works, and sailed for France with his regiment January 3rd. He stated in his letter he was enjoying the best of health and had a fine trip. He also said France was a fine country, but nothing like the good old U. S. A.

FATALLY INJURED IN THE CLAIRTON YARDS

William Allhouse, aged about 18 years, was so seriously hurt in the Clairton yards Tuesday night, that he died from the effects of his injuries at the Mercy hospital, Wednesday morning. The young man lived in Monongahela and at the time of the accident was leaving the yard about 5:30 to take a train at the Clairton station. While on the way he was caught by a yard engine of the Clairton mills and received fatal injuries. At one time he worked in moving picture theatres, being an operator.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. John Crawford on Washington avenue Thursday afternoon. The meeting will be in the nature of a silver social and a Frances Willard memorial.

If the reader will carefully measure out 30 feet an idea of a horse's capacity in this direction will be gathered. Such a distance a steeplechase horse called Old Chandler is reported to have covered at Warwick many years ago; and there is more than one apparently authentic record of a horse clearing over seven feet in height. The scene of such an exploit was at the Phoenix park, Dublin, and the horse was called Turnip. The animal belonged to Sir E. Crofton, and the duke of Richmond, then lord lieutenant of Ireland, was gored 1700 that this height could not be cleared. A wall of the requisite dimensions was built, and when finished Turnip was ridden at it. He did what was asked of him in perfect style, but it happened that his grace, not knowing that the feat was ready for performance, was not looking when the jump was made, and Turnip was therefore ridden over it again, not only successfully, but easily.—London Tit-Bits.

Might Have Saved French.

Rice 400 B. C.

The culture of rice is alluded to in the Talmud, and there is evidence that it was grown in the valley of the Euphrates and in Syria before 400 B. C. It was taken into Persia from India, and later into Spain by the Arabs. Thence its culture was introduced into Italy about A. D. 1468. The Spaniards are also responsible for its introduction into Peru and other sections of Spanish America during the early colonial period, but the exact date has not been definitely determined.

For Beating Rugs.

If you have a carpet or rug to beat, don't hang it up double on the clothes line where the dust from one side is just pounded into the other side. There is a much easier and quicker method. If you have an old bed spring, still on its frame, lay the carpet on it, single thickness. You will find that the dust doesn't fly so much, and you can get the dust out much quicker and easier than when it is beaten on the clothes line.

Rebeccaite.

In 1843 a band of Welsh rioters made war upon the toll-gates along the highways of a large district. The captain of the rioters and his guard disguised themselves in female attire, and they were called Rebeccaite. This name arose from a gross perversion of a text of Scripture: "And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, let thy seed possess the gate of those who hate them."—Genes 24-60.

Apt With Her Excuse.

Emily, preferring the doll her grandmother had given her to the one her mother gave her, tucked the rejected doll out of sight in a broken doll crib. Her mother asked her why she didn't play with the doll she had given her. Emily looked at her mother a moment in silence, seeming to fear hurting her mother's feelings, then gave a quick look at the crib and said, "Sh-sh! She's sick."

Famous Tree Destroyed.

"Byron's tree," in Harrow parish churchyard, has been destroyed by fire, wantonly caused by a visitor. This is the elm made famous by the poet, who in a letter from Italy in 1822 stated that he used to sit for hours under a large tree in the churchyard. He also wrote some well-known "Lines written beneath an elm in the churchyard of Harrow."

Found Live Crab in Bottle.

A Maine fisherman claims to have pulled up a pint milk bottle with a live crab in it. It is evident that the crab had crawled into the bottle when small and stayed there until it grew so large it could not get out. The bottle was crusted with barnacles when it was pulled up, which shows it had been in the water a long time.

U. S. FOOD ADMINISTRATION

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS

James L. Lockhart, food administrator for Washington county, has received instruction from the state food administrator with reference to bread portions to be served by hotels and restaurants to guests. It is as follows:

"Monday and Wednesday wheatless; Tuesday meatless; Saturday, porkless; one meatless, one wheatless meal each day. Portion of bread or rolls should consist of not more than two ounces, and not more than this quantity should be served to anyone at any one meal. Rolls should weigh not more than one ounce each, except that when corn, oat meal, bran bread, or rolls is served alone, portion may consist of not more than four ounces. You will note that all hotels, restaurants, dining cars, will come under new baking regulations announced in the press February 1, but hotels and restaurants have led the van of food conservation and can do more. After careful study of wheat flour situation as affecting lunch rooms, Food Administration has ruled that pies, and doughnuts may be served on wheatless days, provided thirty-three and one-third per cent or more of wheat flour substitutes are mixed with the wheat flour for all pies and doughnuts that are served every day during the week. Strict compliance with these regulations should be observed."
